This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. At a Meeting of the Council of the HARLEIAN SOCIETY, held at 8, Danes Inn, London, W.C., on the 28*th day of May,* 1869, the Honourable HENRY ROPER CURZON in the Chair, it was resolved that—

"The First Publication of the Society be THE HERALDIC VISITATION OF LONDON IN 1568, by Robert Cooke, Clarenceux King of Arms, to be edited by JOSEPH JACKSON HOWARD, ESQ., LL.D., F.S.A., and GEORGE JOHN ARMYTAGE, ESQ., F.S.A."

Preface.

THE Visitation contained in the following pages was taken by Robert Cooke, Clarenceux King of Arms in the year 1568. The copy from which it is transcribed forms one of the Harleian Manuscripts in the British Museum. It is in the handwriting of Nicholas Charles, who died in 1613, and the additions subsequent to that date are by William Camden, Clarenceux King of Arms, who bought Charles's books at his death. It is impossible to draw the exact line between the original Visitation and the additions, but the undoubted repute in which both heralds were held who possessed it renders it unnecessary.

The Editors cannot conclude these few preliminary remarks without acknowledging their great obligation to Mr. JOHN DAVIDSON, a member of the Council of the Harleian Society, to whom the Society is indebted for the very elaborate Index appended to the Work.

JOSEPH JACKSON HOWARD.
GEORGE J. ARMYTAGE.

At a meeting of a few friends to consider the best method of presenting to the public, in a clear and permanent form, the numerous manuscripts relating to the history of our ancestors contained in the Public Libraries, Record Offices, and other depositories, it was resolved to form a society, to be called the HARLEIAN SOCIETY. The gentlemen above named having consented to act as the Council and Officers of the Society, the following Rules were drawn up and agreed to.

Rules.

1. This Society shall be called the HARLEIAN SOCIETY.

2. It shall have for its chief object the publication of the Heraldic Visitations of Counties, and any manuscripts relating to genealogy, family history, and heraldry, selected by the Council.

3. The Council shall consist of a President, nine Vice-Presidents, and twelve Members of Council, two of whom shall hold the posts of Secretary and Treasurer; and any four, including the Treasurer or Secretary, shall form a quorum. In case of equality of votes, the Chairman to have a casting vote.

4. Three Members of the Council shall retire in rotation annually, but shall be eligible for re-election.

5. The Annual Subscription shall be One Guinea, paid in advance, and due on the 1st day of January in each year; and Members elected after two hundred and fifty shall have joined, shall pay an Entrance Fee of 10*s.* 6*d.* in addition to their first Annual Subscription.

6. The funds raised by the Society shall be expended in publishing such works as are selected by the Council.

7. One volume at least shall be supplied to the Members every year.

8. An Annual Meeting shall be held in the month of June every year, at such time and place as the Council may direct; and due notice shall be sent to the Members of the Society at least a fortnight previously.

9. No work shall be supplied to any Member unless his Subscription for the year be paid; and any member not having paid his subscription for two years, having received notice thereof, shall cease to belong to the Society.

10. The Council may, at their discretion, pay the expense of transcribing from manuscripts whenever two hundred Members, at least, shall have joined the Society; but no payment in money shall be made to any person for editing any work for the Society.

11. The Council are to appoint the printer for each year, and to decide the price at which the surplus volumes may be supplied to the public.

12. An account of the receipts and expenses of the Society to be made up to the 1st of June in each year, and published with a list of the Members and the Rules of the Society in the following volume.

13. These Rules shall not be altered except at the Annual Meeting, and three clear weeks' notice must be given to the Secretary of any such intended alteration.

The Council have selected the Visitation of London in 1568 as the first publication of the Society, and the Visitation of Leicestershire in 1619 as the second publication of the Society.
